Centering Health, Wellbeing, and Equity in Everyday Decision-Making

Figure 1. Centering Health, Wellbeing, and Equity in Everyday Decision-Making

The image above illustrates that many dimensions of campus impact the overall health and wellbeing of the campus community. These are big categories, and many examples can fall within each category. Each dimension impacts students, staff, faculty, alumni, and even the larger community. For more information, review the Health, Wellbeing and Equity Assessment Lens for Everyday Decision-Making on the Healthy Campus website.

Figure 2. Everyday Decision-Making Questions for HiAP

The image above illustrates questions to ask ourselves as we influence and make decisions. We think these questions are important to use every day as we create, assess, or re-imagine practices, processes, projects, partnerships, policies, and programs. For more information, review the Health, Wellbeing and Equity Assessment Lens for Everyday Decision-Making on the Healthy Campus website.